

The service that I get from XM Radio is the best thing I have ever came across. The weather for over the road truck drivers makes for a safer work place when you can schedule your delivery around bad weather and this could only happen if it were announced on the radio.